

NO DREAMS DEFERRED

ENJOY A FUN AND INTERACTIVE WORKSHOP

With Author & Entrepreneur Veronica N. Chapman

WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION

No Dreams Deferred is an interactive workshop where children ages 6 and older and their caregivers (parents, grandparents, mentors, etc.) acknowledge, explore, and even display their individual gifts and talents. The workshop also provides an opportunity for participants to discuss their goals and dreams while holding each other accountable to those ambitions.

INSPIRATION

The workshop is inspired by the powerful messages of the children's book I Know I Can!, which has proved to be a wellspring of inspiration for children and adults alike.

OBJECTIVE

No Dreams Deferred provides a space for participants to consider the knowledge and tools required to achieve their goals and make their greatest contributions to the world.

IN-PERSON AUTHOR VISIT

ENJOY A FUN AND INTERACTIVE WORKSHOP

IN-PERSON VISIT OVERVIEW

The main themes covered in "I Know I Can!" are themes of global exploration, self-empowerment, and social justice. In "King Khalid is PROUD" the focus is on the power of creating vs. consuming, and what it means to be proud. Most importantly, both books encourage children to believe in their potential for greatness, and to consider the work and attitude it will take to accomplish their goals. Each in-person author visit includes a reading of one of these books, along with an interactive workshop about what it means to be intelligent, courageous, adventurous, confident, and self-motivated. The reading, workshop, and Q&A last 45 minutes.

IN-PERSON VISIT FEES

$600 - Plus travel, meals, and lodging expenses, if necessary. If your school or organization can't afford these fees, please e-mail info@boxxout.com to inquire about the possibility of other arrangements.
